Dear Mr. Greenberg:

We are pleased to advise you that your book, STAKING A CLAIM, has been selected by the New York Public Library Young Adult Services as a 1991 Book for the Teen Age.

This is an annual list, published since 1929, that seeks out the best books for young people, ages 12-18. The booklist is distributed free to teenagers through the 82 branch libraries of the New York Public Library. Last year's edition was also sold to over 3,000 libraries in the U.S. and foreign countries.

Each year a special reception is held to celebrate the publication of the new list. The library has asked us to forward the enclosed invitation to you. The event will be held on March 16th. They anticipate a turn-out of over 300 librarians, publishing representatives, authors and young adults.

Congratulations!

Sincerely,
